This shall be without prejudice to SweepBank's right to terminate the Agreement as referred to below.

Information about these limits may be obtained from SweepBank's website, your Mobile Account, or the SweepBank's Customer Support Centre.

4.11 SweepBank shall have the right to block the Card if factual reasons in connection with the security of the Card justify this, if there is suspicion of non-authorized or of fraudulent use of the Card. In this case, SweepBank will notify the Customer of the blocking of the Card if possible before, but at the latest promptly after the block is established. SweepBank will contact the Customer via phone, after identification and verification, or via email, to the Customer's email registered with SweepBank; or via the SweepBank App Message Centre after user authentication is completed. If the amount has been debited to the account, SweepBank will restore the account to the balance it would have been in without the unauthorised card transaction. The Cardholder may also assert liability claims pursuant to Section 4.3. after expiry of the deadline in sentence 1 if he/she was prevented from complying with this deadline through no fault of his/her own.

(2) Claims by the Cardholder against SweepBank shall be excluded if the circumstances giving rise to a claim are due to an unusual and unforeseeable event outside SweepBank's control, the consequences of which could not have been avoided by SweepBank despite exercising all due care, or were brought about by SweepBank as a result of a legal obligation.

7. Cardholder's liability for unauthorised card transactions

His liability under paragraph (5) for intent and gross negligence and for acting with fraudulent intent shall remain unaffected.

If SweepBank has contributed to the occurrence of the damage through a breach of its obligations, SweepBank shall be liable for the damage incurred to the extent of the contributory negligence for which it is responsible.

(4) The Cardholder shall not be liable under paragraph (1) and (3,) if he / she was unable to submit the notification in accordance with paragraph 3.1 because SweepBank had not ensured the possibility of receiving the notification and the loss occurred as a result.

(5) If unauthorised card transactions are made prior to the card-blocking notification pursuant to Section 7.2 a) and the Cardholder has violated his/her duties of care under these Terms and Conditions intentionally or through gross negligence or has acted fraudulently, the Cardholder shall bear the full amount of any loss incurred as a result. Gross negligence on the part of the Cardholder may be deemed to have occurred in particular if

- the loss, theft or misuse was culpably not reported immediately to SweepBank after the Cardholder became aware of it, or

(5) The credit value date of an amount credited to the concerned SweepBank Current Account or SweepBank Savings Account is no later than the Business Day on which the amount of the payment transaction is credited to the concerned SweepBank Current Account or SweepBank Savings Account. Where this does not happen due to SweepBank, SweepBank shall ensure that the amount of the incoming payment transaction is at the Customer's disposal immediately after that amount is credited to the Customer's SweepBank Account. The amount shall be value dated on your SweepBank account no later than the date on which the amount would have been value dated had the transaction been correctly executed. The amount of the payment shall be at your disposal immediately after that amount is credited to the SweepBank Current Account or SweepBank Savings Account, but only to the extent that (i) no currency conversion is applied on the concerned SweepBank Current Account or SweepBank Savings Account; or otherwise that (ii) a currency conversion is applied on the concerned SweepBank Current Account or SweepBank Savings Account between Euro and another currency of the EEA or between two currencies of the EEA different than Euro.

The Customer shall be informed about any such debiting on SweepBank's part on the next Statement.

Where SweepBank is liable under this Section 1.6, paragraph 6, unless the Customer provides SweepBank with other specific instructions, SweepBank shall:

in case of outgoing payment transactions, refund without undue delay, to the Customer the amount of the non-executed or defective payment transaction, and, where applicable, restore the debited SweepBank Current Account to the state in which it would have been had the defective payment instruction not taken place; The credit value date shall be no later than the date on which the amount would have been value dated had the transaction been correctly executed. In the case of a later execution of an incoming payment transaction, the credit value date for the Customer's account shall be no later than the date on which the amount would have been value dated had the transaction been correctly executed.

Where the Customer gives a payment order as a payee, SweepBank shall be liable to you for the correct transmission of the payment order within the agreed execution times. In case of failure to transmit the order as agreed, SweepBank shall immediately re-transmit the payment order in question to the payment service provider of the payer. However, the amount shall be value dated on the Customer's payment account no later than the date on which the amount would have been value dated had the transaction been correctly executed.

The Customer does not have a right to a refund if he has granted his consent to the execution of the payment transaction directly to SweepBank and, where agreed, he was informed of the coming payment transaction at least four (4) weeks prior to the due date by SweepBank. A claim to a refund on the part of the Customer is ruled out if he does not assert it vis-à-vis SweepBank within eight (8) weeks from the time of the debit of the payment amount in question. SweepBank within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of a refund demand will either refund the full amount of the payment transaction or inform the Customer of the reasons for the refusal to provide a refund.

1.7 Refusal of execution

(1) If the conditions for execution (see Section 1.6, paragraph 1)

- the execution of a payment order is prohibited by law or violates legal regulations.

In order to assess the background of the incoming payment before SweepBank decides on a rejection, blocking or credit of the payment, SweepBank reserves the right to obtain additional information and documentation as well as corrected or supplemental payment instructions from the customer and from the ordering financial institution. SweepBank shall not be liable to the client for any resulting delays in the credit or rejection. In the event of a rejection, SweepBank shall, at the earliest opportunity, and in any case no later than the end of the Business Day following the day when the payment order is received by SweepBank according to the terms of Section 1.4. above, inform the Customer on the refusal and the reasons for it and the procedure for correcting any factual mistakes that led to the refusal, unless prohibition to inform is set out in the applicable laws and regulations.

SweepBank may charge a reasonable fee for providing such information, if the refusal is objectively justified.

SweepBank is finally entitled to inform all parties involved in the transaction of the reason why the payment was not credited.

In case of any compliance concerns, before SweepBank acts on a payment instruction, it may also require further confirmation from the Customer or take additional steps to verify that the Customer authorised it. For example, SweepBank may ask the Customer to provide more information to verify Customer's identity.

(2) If SweepBank is clearly unable to assign a unique identifier provided by the customer to any payee, payment account or payee's payment service provider, it shall inform the customer thereof without delay and, if necessary, return the amount of the credit transfer.

Unless the law states otherwise, SweepBank will inform the Customer as soon as possible in the event of a refusal or delay in carrying out a payment instruction. SweepBank will inform the Customer of the reasons for its refusal or delay to make the payment and it shall inform the Customer of any actions the Customer may take to correct any factual errors which led to SweepBank's refusal or delay. SweepBank will contact the Customer through direct communication on the message centre in the Customer's Mobile Account.

SweepBank agrees to accept instructions given by a person who is Customer's attorney (legal authority to act for the Customer). In such cases SweepBank will require specific documentation to ensure that such attorney is properly identified and to ensure he/she has been properly authorised.

Where crossborder credit transfers and domestic priority credit transfers are involved, the credit transfer data may also be forwarded to the payee's payment service provider via the Society for Worldwide Interbank Financial Telecommunications (SWIFT), based in Belgium. For system security reasons, SWIFT stores the credit transfer data temporarily at its operating centres in the European Union, Switzerland and the United States.

In the event of an unauthorised credit transfer (see Section 1.3 (1)), SweepBank shall have no claim against the customer for reimbursement of its expenses. SweepBank shall be obliged to refund the amount of the transfer to the customer and, where the amount has been debited to an account held by the customer, to restore that account to the position it would have been in if it had not been debited with the unauthorised transfer. This obligation must be fulfilled at the latest by the end of the business day following the day on which SweepBank was notified that the transfer was unauthorised or SweepBank was otherwise informed of the unauthorised transfer. If SweepBank has notified a competent authority in writing of justified grounds for suspecting fraudulent conduct on the part of the customer, SweepBank must examine and fulfil its obligation under sentence 2 without delay if the suspicion of fraud is not confirmed. If the transfer was initiated via a payment initiation service provider, the obligations arising from sentences 2 to 4 shall be incumbent on SweepBank.

1.10.2 Claims in the event of non-execution, defective execution or delay of an authorised credit transfer

(1) In the event of non-execution or defective execution of an authorised credit transfer, the customer may request SweepBank to refund the amount of the credit transfer without delay and in full where the payment was not made or was defective. If the amount has been debited to the Customer's account, SweepBank shall restore the account to the status it would have had without the non-executed or incorrectly executed payment transaction. If a credit transfer is initiated by the customer via a payment initiation service provider, the obligations arising from sentences 1 and 2 shall apply to SweepBank. Where charges have been deducted from the amount of a credit transfer by SweepBank or intermediaries, SweepBank shall immediately transmit the amount deducted in favour of the payee.

(2) In addition to the provisions of paragraph 1, the customer may request SweepBank to refund any charges and to charge interest to the extent that such charges were invoiced to him or debited to his account in connection with the non-execution or defective execution of the credit transfer.

(3) In the event of late execution of an authorised credit transfer, the customer may request SweepBank to require the payee's payment service provider to credit the payee's payment account as if the credit transfer had been correctly executed. The obligation under the first sentence shall also apply if the credit transfer is initiated by the customer via a payment initiation service provider. If SweepBank proves that the payment amount was received in time by the payee's payment service provider, this obligation shall not apply.

(4) If a transfer was not executed or was executed incorrectly, SweepBank shall, at the customer's request, trace the payment transaction and inform the customer of the result. This shall be free of charge for the Customer.

(5) Where the Customer gives a payment order as a payee, SweepBank shall be liable to you for the correct transmission of the payment order within the agreed execution times. In case of failure to transmit the order as agreed, SweepBank shall immediately re-transmit the payment order in question to the payment service provider of the payer.

1.10.3 Compensation for breach of duty

(1) In the event of non-execution, defective execution or late execution of an authorised credit transfer or of an unauthorised credit transfer, the customer may claim compensation from SweepBank for any loss or damage not already covered by Sections 1.10.1 and 1.10.2. This shall not apply if SweepBank is not responsible for the breach of duty. Scheme responsible for the protection of your deposit

Your deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your credit institution should occur, your deposits would in any case be repaid up to €100,000.

General limit of protection

If a deposit is unavailable because a credit institution is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by the Depositor Compensation Scheme, in accordance with the regulations. This repayment covers a maximum of €100,000 per credit institution. This means that all deposits at the same credit institution are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance, a depositor holds a savings account with €90,000 and a current account with €20,000, he or she will only be repaid €100,000.

In addition to the protection described above, deposits may be protected in some cases up to a maximum of €500,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such deposits become legally transferable. In order to qualify for such higher protection, a deposit in excess of €100,000 must meet any one of the following additional criteria:

it comprises:

- monies deposited in preparation for the purchase of a private residential property by the depositor; or
- monies which represent the proceeds of sale of a private residential property of the depositor; or
- it comprises sums paid to the depositor in respect of:
 - a separation, divorce or dissolution of their civil union; or
 - benefits payable on retirement; or
 - a claim for compensation for unfair dismissal; or
 - a claim for compensation for redundancy; or
 - benefits payable for death or bodily injury; or
 - a claim for compensation for wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under www.compensationschemes.org.mt

Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of €100,000 applies to each depositor. However, deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of €100,000.

Reimbursement
