(3.1) Please note that there are special provisions in this Schedule C stipulating when the instruction is deemed received.

1.6 Execution of Credit Transfer orders

(1) SweepBank shall execute your Credit Transfer order if the information required for execution is provided in the required manner (see Section 1.3, paragraph 1), the Credit Transfer order is authorised by you (see Section 1.3, paragraph 1) and a sufficient credit balance in the currency of the Credit Transfer order is available or sufficient credit has been granted (conditions for execution), unless there are grounds for refusal pursuant to Section 1.7 below.

(3) SweepBank shall inform you at least once a month about the execution of Credit Transfers through the Statement, available on the Mobile Account.

(4) Credit Transfer orders shall be processed in real time. However, if SweepBank receives the Credit Transfer order after the Cut-off time or on a day which is not a Business Day the Credit Transfer order shall be considered received on the next business day. The Credit Transfer order shall be transmitted to the receiving bank by the next Business Day from when it is received. If the Credit Transfer order is in a currency of the EEA, the amount of the Credit Transfer order shall be credited to the payee's payment service provider's account at the latest by the end of the next Business Day following the point in time of receipt of the Credit Transfer order (or the requested date of execution) as specified in Section 1.4. above. Future dated Credit Transfer will be processed on the day stipulated by you. The debit value date shall be no earlier than the point in time at which the amount of the Credit Transfer is debited from SweepBank Current Account or SweepBank Savings Account. In all cases, SweepBank's responsibility for the Credit Transfer ends when the Credit Transfer order is transmitted to the receiving bank.

(5) The credit value date of an amount credited to the SweepBank Current Account or SweepBank Savings Account shall be no later than the Business Day on which the amount of the Incoming Credit Transfer is credited to the concerned SweepBank Current Account or SweepBank Savings Account. The amount of the Incoming Credit Transfer order shall be at your disposal immediately after the amount is credited to your SweepBank Account, if there is no currency conversion involving a currency which is not the currency of the EEA.

In case of an incorrectly executed Incoming Credit Transfer, the amount shall be value dated on your SweepBank Account no later than the date on which the amount would have been value dated had the transaction been correctly executed.

SweepBank reserves the right to claim refund from you and/or immediately debit from your Account without prior notice, any amount of money paid by SweepBank into your SweepBank Account in error. You shall be informed about any such debiting on SweepBank's part on the next Statement.

If the Credit Transfer is in Euro (EUR), the Credit Transfer will reach the other bank no later than one (1) Business Day after SweepBank received your Credit Transfer order.

You can ask SweepBank for details of the time the Credit Transfer will take to arrive. SweepBank shall ensure execution deadlines for any Credit Transfer order received from you, however SweepBank will not be responsible for any delay caused by the receiving bank system and/or processes.

In addition, it shall be your responsibility to verify whether the Credit Transfer is subject to any charge by the beneficiary banks, as applicable, and if necessary, to provide for same.

If the Credit Transfer orders are not applied and are returned to us, SweepBank will credit the returned funds, less SweepBank's charges, if applicable, to the account which had been debited.

(6) SweepBank shall be liable to you for the correct execution of the Credit Transfer order, unless the transaction is carried outside of the EU, in a currency which is not the currency of a member state of the EU and at least one payment service provider is located outside the EU. SweepBank shall not be liable, if SweepBank can provide evidence that:

- regarding Credit Transfers, SweepBank has transferred the funds to the payee's payment service provider subject to the execution time set forth under these Terms and Conditions;
- regarding Incoming Credit Transfers, SweepBank has duly credited the concerned SweepBank Current Account or SweepBank Savings Account.

SweepBank may not be held liable if the defective execution of the Credit Transfer is due to the communication of incorrect bank details by you.

Where SweepBank is liable under this Section 1.6, paragraph 6, unless you provide SweepBank with other specific instructions, SweepBank shall:

- in case of Credit Transfers, if you are the payer - refund to you, without undue delay, the amount of the non-executed or defective Credit Transfer, and, where applicable, restore the debited SweepBank Current Account or SweepBank Savings Account to the state in which it would have been had the defective Credit Transfer not taken place; This obligation must be fulfilled at the latest by the end of the business day following the day on which the Bank was informed that the Credit Transfer order was unauthorized. The credit value date shall be no later than the date on which the amount was debited. SweepBank will notify you of the outcome.

- in case of Incoming Credit Transfer, immediately credit the SweepBank Current Account or SweepBank Saving Account with the amount of the transaction and place the amount of the Incoming Credit Transfer order at your disposal immediately after that amount is credited to your SweepBank Account. The credit value date shall be no later than the date on which the amount would have been value dated had the Incoming Credit Transfer been correctly executed. In the case of late execution of an Incoming Credit Transfer, the credit value date for your account shall be no later than the date on which the amount would have been value dated had the Incoming Credit Transfer been correctly executed.

Where you give a Incoming Credit Transfer order as a payee, SweepBank shall be liable to you for the correct transmission of the Incoming Credit Transfer order within the agreed execution times. In case of failure to transmit the order as agreed, SweepBank shall immediately re-transmit the Incoming Credit Transfer order in question to the payment service provider of the payer. The amount shall be value dated no later than the date on which the amount would have been value dated had the Incoming Credit Transfer been correctly executed. In such a case, SweepBank shall make immediate efforts to trace the Credit Transfer order and notify you thereof, even if SweepBank is not liable. This shall be free of charge to you.

In case SweepBank is liable for the non-execution, defective execution or late execution of a Credit Transfer order, SweepBank shall be liable for any charges for which it is responsible and for interest, if any, to which you are subject as a consequence of SweepBank's failures.

(7) With respect to those payment transactions initiated by or through a payee:

You may request SweepBank to refund of a Credit Transfer order debited from your SweepBank Account based on an authorised Credit Transfer initiated through a payee if (a) the precise amount was not stated on the authorisation, and (b) if the amount of the Credit Transfer order exceeds the amount which you could have anticipated in line with your previous spending pattern, these Agreement and the respective circumstances of the individual case. The burden of proving the existence of such circumstances is on you. Reasons connected with any currency exchange are not to be considered if the reference exchange rate agreed between the parties was used as a basis. The credit value date shall be no later than the date on which the amount was debited.

You do not have a right to a refund if you have granted your consent to the execution of the Credit Transfer directly to SweepBank and you were informed of the coming Credit Transfer at least four (4) weeks prior to the due date by SweepBank in the agreed manner. A claim to a refund is ruled out if you do not assert it vis-à-vis SweepBank within eight (8) weeks from the time of the debit of the Credit Transfer order. SweepBank within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of a refund demand will either refund the full amount of the Credit Transfer or inform you of the reasons for the refusal to provide a refund. In case of refusal, SweepBank shall also indicate the applicable dispute resolution mechanism.

This clause 1.6.(7) shall not apply if the Credit Transfer is carried outside of the EU, in a currency which is not the currency of a member state of the EU and at least one payment service provider is located outside the EU.

1.7 Refusal of execution

(1) If the conditions for execution (see Section 1.6, paragraph 1) are not fulfilled, SweepBank may refuse to execute the Credit Transfer order.

- SweepBank believes or suspects instances of fraud, money laundering or funding of terrorism or any other situation giving rise to compliance concerns;
- the execution of a Credit Transfer or Incoming Credit Transfer order is prohibited by law or violates legal regulations.

In order to assess the background of the Incoming Credit Transfer order before SweepBank decides on a rejection, blocking or credit of the Incoming Credit Transfer, SweepBank reserves the right to obtain additional information and documentation as well as corrected or supplemental Incoming Credit Transfer instructions from you and from the ordering financial institution. SweepBank shall not be liable to you for any resulting delays.

SweepBank is finally entitled to inform all parties involved in the payment transaction of the reason why the payment transaction was not credited.

In case of any compliance concerns, before SweepBank acts on a Credit Transfer order, it may also require further confirmation from you or take additional steps to verify that you authorised it. For example, SweepBank may ask you to provide more information to verify your identity.

(2) If SweepBank is clearly unable to assign a unique identifier provided by you to any payee, payment account or payee's payment service provider, it shall inform you thereof without delay and, if necessary, return the amount of the Credit Transfer.

Unless the law states otherwise, SweepBank will inform you as soon as possible, and in any case no later than the end of the Business Day following the day when the Credit Transfer order is received, in the event of a refusal or delay in carrying out a Credit Transfer order. SweepBank will inform you of the reasons for its refusal or delay to make the Credit Transfer and it shall inform you of any actions you may take to correct any factual errors which led to SweepBank's refusal or delay. SweepBank will contact you through direct communication on the message centre in your Mobile Account.

SweepBank may charge a reasonable fee for providing such information if the refusal is objectively justified.

Where cross border Credit Transfers and domestic priority Credit Transfers are involved, the Credit Transfer Data may also be forwarded to the payee's payment service provider via the Society for Worldwide Interbank Financial Telecommunications (SWIFT), based in Belgium. For system security reasons, SWIFT stores the Credit Transfer Data temporarily at its operating centres in the European Union, Switzerland and the United States.

1.9 Notification of Unauthorised or Incorrectly Executed Credit Transfers

You shall inform SweepBank without delay on finding that a Credit Transfer order was unauthorised or executed incorrectly. This shall also apply in cases where a payment initiation service provider is involved.

You must take all the reasonable precautions to keep your Personalized Security Features confidential and secure according to the relevant provisions of Schedule B - Conditions for the SweepBank Debit Card – and of Schedule D – Conditions for Mobile Banking. SweepBank shall be obliged to refund the amount of the Credit Transfer to you and, where the amount has been debited to an account held by you, to restore that account to the position it would have been in if it had not been debited with the unauthorised Credit Transfer. This obligation must be fulfilled at the latest by the end of the business day following the day on which SweepBank was notified that the Credit transfer was unauthorised or SweepBank was otherwise informed of the unauthorised Credit Transfer. If SweepBank has notified a competent authority in writing of justified grounds for suspecting fraudulent conduct on the part of you, SweepBank must examine and fulfil its obligation under sentence 2 without delay if the suspicion of fraud is not confirmed. Where charges have been deducted from the amount of a Credit Transfer by SweepBank or intermediaries, SweepBank shall immediately transmit the amount deducted in favour of the payee.

If SweepBank proves that the Credit Transfer amount was received in time by the payee's payment service provider, this obligation shall not apply.

(1) Scheme responsible for the protection of your deposit

Your deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your credit institution should occur, your deposits would in any case be repaid up to €100,000.

(2) General limit of protection

If a deposit is unavailable because a credit institution is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by the Depositor Compensation Scheme, in accordance with the regulations. This repayment covers a maximum of €100,000 per credit institution. This means that all deposits at the same credit institution are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance, a depositor holds a savings account with €90,000 and a current account with €20,000, he or she will only be repaid €100,000.

In addition to the protection described above, deposits may be protected in some cases up to a maximum of €500,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such deposits become legally transferable. In order to qualify for such higher protection, a deposit in excess of €100,000 must meet any one of the following additional criteria:

it comprises:

- monies deposited in preparation for the purchase of a private residential property by the depositor; or
- monies which represent the proceeds of sale of a private residential property of the depositor; or
- it comprises sums paid to the depositor in respect of:
 - a separation, divorce or dissolution of their civil union; or
 - benefits payable on retirement; or
 - a claim for compensation for unfair dismissal; or
 - a claim for compensation for redundancy; or
 - benefits payable for death or bodily injury; or
 - a claim for compensation for wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under www.compensationschemes.org.mt

(3) Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of €100,000 applies to each depositor. However, deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of €100,000.

It will repay your deposits up to €100,000 within 10 working days from 1 January 2021 until 31 December 2023; and within 7 working days from 1 January 2024 onwards.

Until 31 December 2023, where the Depositor Compensation Scheme cannot make the repayable amount(s) available within seven (7) working days, depositors shall have access to an amount, equivalent to three times the gross weekly minimum wage to cover the cost of living, within five (5) working days of a request from the depositor. The Depositor Compensation Scheme shall only grant access to such amount within five (5) working days on the basis of data provided by the credit institution. Such amount shall be deducted from the compensation which may be payable.

If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should make contact with the Depositor Compensation Scheme since the time to claim reimbursement may be barred after a certain time limit. Further information can be obtained from www.compensationschemes.org.mt.

Your credit institution will also inform you on request whether certain products are covered or not. If deposits are covered, the credit institution shall also confirm this on the statement of account.
