- regarding incoming payment transactions, SweepBank has duly credited the concerned SweepBank Current Account or SweepBank Savings Account.

SweepBank may not be held liable if the defective execution of the payment transaction is due to the communication of incorrect bank details by you or because you communicated information in addition to that required for the execution of the payment instruction.

Where SweepBank is liable under this Section 1.6, paragraph 6, unless you provides SweepBank with other specific instructions, SweepBank shall:

in case of outgoing payment transactions, refund to you without undue delay, the amount of the non-executed or defective payment transaction, and, where applicable, restore the debited SweepBank Current Account or SweepBank Savings Account to the state in which it would have been had the defective payment instruction not taken place. At SweepBank's request, you will explain the factual circumstances from which your refund demand arises. You do not have a right to a refund if you gave your consent to the execution of the payment transaction directly to SweepBank and, where agreed, you were informed of the coming payment transaction at least four (4) weeks prior to the due date by SweepBank. Your claim to a refund is ruled out if you do not assert it vis-à-vis SweepBank within eight (8) weeks from the time of the debit of the payment amount in question. SweepBank within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of a refund demand will either refund the full amount of the payment transaction or inform you of the reasons for the refusal to provide a refund as well as the authorities and other similar bodies with which you may submit the complaint.

In order to assess the background of the incoming payment before SweepBank decides on a rejection, blocking or credit of the payment, SweepBank reserves the right to obtain additional information and documentation as well as corrected or supplemental payment instructions from you and/or from the ordering financial institution. SweepBank shall not be liable to you for any resulting delays in the credit or rejection of the payment order. In the event of a rejection, the SweepBank shall, at the earliest opportunity, and in any case no later than the end of the Business Day following the day when the payment order is received by SweepBank according to the terms of Section 1.4. above, inform you of the refusal and the reasons for it and the procedure for correcting any factual mistakes that led to the refusal, unless prohibition to inform is set out in the applicable laws and regulations.

SweepBank may charge a reasonable fee for providing such information, if the refusal is objectively justified.

SweepBank is finally entitled to inform all parties involved in the transaction of the reason why the payment was not credited.

Before SweepBank acts on a payment instruction, it may also require further confirmation from you or take additional steps to verify that it was authorised by you. For example, SweepBank may ask you to provide more information to verify your identity.

(2) If SweepBank is clearly unable to assign a unique identifier provided by you to any payee, payment account or payee's Payment Initiation Service Provider, it shall inform you thereof without delay and, if necessary, return the amount of the credit transfer.

Where you deny having authorised an executed payment transaction or claims that the payment transaction was executed erroneously, it is for SweepBank to prove that the payment transaction was authenticated, accurately recorded, entered in the accounts and not affected by a technical breakdown or some other deficiency. Where you deny having authorised an executed payment transaction, SweepBank must also prove that you acted fraudulently or failed with intent or gross negligence to fulfil one or more of the obligations specified under the Agreement, concerning the use of the Card as well as the relevant security measures and notifications. Where the credit transfer was initiated via a Payment Initiation Service Provider, the burden of proof as described hereby shall remain unchanged on SweepBank and the obligations upon SweepBank of refund for unauthorised or incorrectly executed transactions as specified hereby shall be equally fulfilled by SweepBank .

Scheme responsible for the protection of your deposit

Your deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your credit institution should occur, your deposits would in any case be repaid up to €100,000.

General limit of protection

If a deposit is unavailable because a credit institution is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by the Depositor Compensation Scheme, in accordance with the regulations. This repayment covers a maximum of €100,000 per credit institution. This means that all deposits at the same credit institution are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance, a depositor holds a savings account with €90,000 and a current account with €20,000, he or she will only be repaid €100,000.

In addition to the protection described above, deposits may be protected in some cases up to a maximum of €500,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such deposits become legally transferable. In order to qualify for such higher protection, a deposit in excess of €100,000 must meet any one of the following additional criteria:

it comprises:

- monies deposited in preparation for the purchase of a private residential property by the depositor; or
- monies which represent the proceeds of sale of a private residential property of the depositor; or
- it comprises sums paid to the depositor in respect of:
 - a separation, divorce or dissolution of their civil union; or
 - benefits payable on retirement; or
 - a claim for compensation for unfair dismissal; or
 - a claim for compensation for redundancy; or
 - benefits payable for death or bodily injury; or
 - a claim for compensation for wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under www.compensationschemes.org.mt

Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of €100,000 applies to each depositor. However, deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of €100,000.

Reimbursement

The responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme is the Depositor Compensation Scheme,
